Mayor Eddie N. Bass, Jr., Presiding

1. Call to Order, Invocation & Pledge of Allegiance
2. Roll Call & Declaration of Quorum (by Town Clerk)
3. Set Agenda (by Vote)
4. Recognition of Visitors & Public Comment (Non-agenda items)

Clerk Announcement: The Town Council of Havana welcomes and encourages public participation at all council meetings. Visitors may speak for up to three (3) minutes on agenda or non-agenda items. Any visitors wishing to speak must fill out a request form which is located on the front table. Comments on non-agenda items will be heard at the beginning of each meeting. The mayor will call for public comment on specific agenda items when the Council moves to that item. Visitors wishing to address the Council on an agenda item should note the agenda item number on the request form. No comments from the audience will be accepted unless the speaker is formally recognized and called on by the mayor or his designee. Decorum is expected at all meetings. Once called, visitors must approach the podium and clearly state their first and last name and address for the record.
